PREPROPOSAL STATEMENT OF INQUIRY DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE

[Filed January 5, 2010, 3:37 p.m.]

Subject of Possible Rule Making: A possible amendment to WAC 458-20-102 to address reseller permits and a new WAC 458-20-102A to retain information about resale certificates.

Statutes Authorizing the Agency to Adopt Rules on this Subject: RCW 82.32.300 and 82.01.060(2).

Reasons Why Rules on this Subject may be Needed and What They Might Accomplish: WAC 458-20-102 (Rule 102) currently explains the resale certificate and conditions under which a buyer may furnish a resale certificate to a seller. Effective January 1, 2010, reseller permits will replace resale certificates as the means to substantiate wholesale purchases, chapter 563, Laws of 2009.

The department (department) of revenue is considering an amendment to Rule 102 to explain the reseller permit and conditions under which a buyer may furnish a reseller permit to a seller. The department is also considering incorporating information now provided in Rule 102 into a new Rule 102A because this information is needed for wholesale transactions occurring before January 1, 2010, until the normal limitation periods for assessments and refunds run.

Other Federal and State Agencies that Regulate this Subject and the Process Coordinating the Rule with These Agencies: None.

Process for Developing New Rule: Parties interested in this rule making may contact the individual listed below. The public may also participate by providing written comments throughout this rule making or giving oral testimony at the public meeting or public hearing.

Interested parties can participate in the decision to adopt the new rule and formulation of the proposed rule before publication. Written comments may be submitted by mail, fax, or at the public meeting. Oral comments will be accepted at the public meeting. A preliminary draft of possible rule changes is available for viewing and printing on our web site at <http://dor.wa.gov/content/FindALawOrRule/RuleMaking/agenda.aspx>. Subject of Possible Rule Making: The department's rules regulating aquatic invasive species.

Statutes Authorizing the Agency to Adopt Rules on this Subject: RCW 77.12.047.

Reasons Why Rules on this Subject may be Needed and What They Might Accomplish: Pursuant to SHB 1778, passed in July 2009, the department needs to create a new rule to designate states and countries where aquatic invasive species have been detected. It also must amend certain rules that reference aquatic invasive species, including but not limited to WAC 232-12-168 and 232-12-016.

Other Federal and State Agencies that Regulate this Subject and the Process Coordinating the Rule with These Agencies: The Washington state recreation and conservation office's aquatic invasive species council: The Washington department of fish and wildlife (WDFW) will coordinate with the council to ensure that rules comport with their goals as well as those of the department.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRIES
[Filed January 6, 2010, 10:42 a.m.]

Subject of Possible Rule Making: WAC 296-20-135 Conversion factors, 296-23-220 Physical therapy rules, and 296-23-230 Occupational therapy rules, medical aid rules updates regarding rate setting for most professional health care services for injured workers. These updates may also impact rates for health care services provided to crime victims.

Statutes Authorizing the Agency to Adopt Rules on this Subject: RCW 51.04.020 and 51.04.030.

Reasons Why Rules on this Subject may be Needed and What They Might Accomplish: The affected rules describe elements used in the process of updating the maximum allowable payments for most professional health care services. These elements are set in rule in order to follow the established methodologies of L&I and maintain consistency with the health care authority and health and recovery services administration. Specifically, the proposed rule changes will do the following:

1. WAC 296-20-135, update the conversion factors used by the department for calculating reimbursement rates for most professional health care and anesthesia services. The conversion factors will be updated to correspond to changes in the medical procedure codes, the relative value units, and anesthesia base units. These changes will enable the department to continue a reimbursement methodology consistent with other state agencies.

2. WAC 296-23-220 and 296-23-230, update the maximum daily reimbursement level for physical and occupational therapy services. See below for additional information on this rule making.

Other Federal and State Agencies that Regulate this Subject and the Process Coordinating the Rule with These Agencies: None.

Process for Developing New Rule: The department is working with external stakeholders through its anesthesia and reimbursement technical advisory groups on updates to conversion factors and to the physical and occupational therapy maximum daily reimbursement level. The department coordinates these updates with the health care authority, the health and recovery services administration and the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services to insure consistent health care purchasing policies when possible. The proposed changes will be presented to the advisory groups and publicized in a letter to interested persons.
