Washington Comments

Comments [1] - [20] are unchanged.

[21] A unilateral deposit of funds belonging in part to a client or third party into a lawyer's non-trust account does not constitute a violation of paragraph (c) of this Rule if the lawyer promptly identifies the portion of the funds belonging to the client or third party, deposits those funds into a trust account, and notifies the client or third party of the deposit. A unilateral deposit of funds belonging in part to a lawyer into a trust account does not constitute a violation of paragraph (h) of this Rule if the lawyer promptly identifies the lawyer-owned funds and withdraws them from the trust account. For purposes of this provision, a unilateral deposit refers to funds deposited directly by a client or third party by means of electronic funds transfer where the lawyer has not directed, invited, or encouraged a deposit that would constitute a violation of this Rule and has taken reasonable precautions to prevent such a deposit.

SUGGESTED AMENDMENT
LAWYERS' FUND FOR CLIENT PROTECTION
(APR 15) PROCEDURAL RULES

Rule 5 - Eligible Claims

A. Eligibility. To be eligible for payment from the Fund, the loss must be caused by the dishonest conduct of a lawyer or the failure to account for money or property entrusted to a lawyer as a result of or directly related to the lawyer's practice of law (as defined in GR 24). The loss must also have arisen out of and by reason of a client-lawyer relationship or a fiduciary relationship in a matter directly related to the lawyer's practice of law.

B. Time Limitations. Any application must be made within three years from the date on which discovery of the loss was made or reasonably should have been made by the applicant, and in no event more than three years from the date the lawyer dies, is disbarred, is disciplined for misappropriation of funds, or is criminally convicted for matters relating to the applicant's loss, provided that the Board or Trustees in their discretion may waive any limitations period for excusable neglect or other good cause.

C. Dishonest Conduct. As used in these rules, "dishonest conduct" or "dishonesty" means wrongful acts committed by a lawyer in the nature of theft or embezzlement of money or the wrongful taking or conversion of money, property or other thing of value, including but not limited to refusal to refund unearned fees or expenses as required by the Rules of Professional Conduct.

D. Excluded Losses. Except as provided by Section E
of this Rule, the following losses shall not be reimbursable:

(1) Losses incurred by related persons, law partners and associate attorneys of the lawyer causing the loss. For purposes of these Rules, "related persons" includes a spouse, domestic partner, child, grandchild, parent, grandparent, sibling, or other Relative or individual with whom the lawyer maintains a close, familial relationship;

(2) Losses covered by any bond, surety agreement, or insurance contract to the extent covered thereby, including any loss to which any bonding agent, surety, or insurer is sub-rogated, to the extent of that subrogated interest;

(3) Losses incurred by any financial institution which are recoverable under a "banker's blanket bond" or similar commonly available insurance or surety contract;

(4) Losses incurred by any business entity controlled by the lawyer or any person or entity described in Rule 5 D (1),
(2) or (3);

(5) Losses incurred by an assignee, lienholder, or creditor of the applicant or lawyer, unless application has been made by the client or beneficiary or the client or beneficiary has authorized such reimbursement;

(6) Losses incurred by any governmental entity or agency;

(7) Losses arising from business or personal investments
not arising in the course of or arising out of the client-lawyer relationship;

(8) Consequential damages, such as lost interest, or attorney's fees or other costs incurred in seeking recovery of a loss.

E. Special and Unusual Circumstances. In cases of special and unusual circumstances, the Board may, in its discretion, consider an application which would otherwise be excluded by reason of the procedural requirements of these rules.

F. Unjust Enrichment. In cases where it appears that there will be unjust enrichment, or that the applicant contributed to the loss, the Board may, in its discretion, recommend the denial of the application. No rule should be interpreted as to provide a financial windfall to a claimant from the fund.

G. Investment Victims. When considering gifts to claimants who were victimized after investing with a lawyer, the Board may consider such factors as the sophistication of the investor, the length of the relationship with the lawyer, and whether the investor was aware that the lawyer had non-lawyer partners.

G.H. Exhaustion of Remedies. The Board may consider whether an applicant has made reasonable attempts to seek reimbursement of a loss before taking action on an application. This may include, but is not limited to, the following:

- (1) Filing a claim with an appropriate insurance carrier;
- (2) Filing a claim on a bond, when appropriate;
- (3) Filing a claim with any and all banks which honored a financial instrument with a forged endorsement;
- (4) As a prelude to possible suit under part (5) below, demanding payment from any business associate or employer who may be liable for the actions of the dishonest lawyer; or
- (5) Commencing appropriate legal action against the lawyer or against any other party or entity who may be liable for the applicant's loss.

SUGGESTED AMENDMENT
LAWYERS' FUND FOR CLIENT PROTECTION
(APR 15) PROCEDURAL RULES
Rule 11 - Restitution and Subrogation

A. Restitution. A lawyer whose conduct results in payment to an applicant shall be liable to the Fund for restitution, and the Trustees may bring such action as they deem advisable to enforce restitution.

B. Subrogation. As a condition of payment, an applicant shall be required to provide the Fund with a pro tanto transfer of the applicant's rights against the lawyer, the lawyer's legal representative, estate or assigns; and of the claimant's rights against any third party or entity who may be liable for the applicant's loss. Failure to return a signed subrogation agreement to the Fund within three years of approval of the application will result in revocation of that approval.

C. Action to Enforce Restitution. In the event the Trustees commence a judicial action to enforce restitution, they shall advise the applicant who may then join in the action to recover any unreimbursed losses. If the applicant commences such an action against the lawyer or another entity who may be liable for the loss, the applicant shall notify the fund who may join in the action.

D. Duty to Cooperate. As a condition of payment, the applicant shall be required to cooperate in all efforts that the Fund undertakes to achieve restitution.

Suspension of Legal Limits of Mercury-Containing Vaccine*for 2011 Seasonal Influenza*PARENT/PATIENT NOTICE*June 2012

Why am I receiving this notice? Washington law sets a limit on how much mercury can be in vaccines for pregnant women and children younger than three years old. The law allows the secretary of health to suspend the state's legal mercury limit for a vaccine if there's a shortage of vaccine available to protect the public's health against vaccine-preventable disease.

When the limits are suspended, state law requires the following people be informed they are being given a vaccine containing mercury levels over those limits:

- Women known to be pregnant or lactating.
- The parent or legal guardian of a child under eighteen years of age receiving the vaccine.

Why is the law being suspended? Effective July 1, 2012, the secretary of health extended the suspension of the state's legal limits on mercury in flu vaccine for people in these groups who have or may have latex allergies. The tip cap of the 2012-2013 single dose thimerosal-free flu vaccine that comes in prefilled syringes may contain trace amounts of natural rubber latex.

This means the health care provider may advise that children under three and pregnant women who have or may have latex allergies avoid vaccine from thimerosal-free single dose syringes. Supplies of other types of thimerosal-free flu vaccine are limited and can't be used for everyone.

Suspending the thimerosal limits law removes barriers so people can choose to be protected. Pregnant women, children under three, and people allergic to latex, including those with spina bifida who are considered at high risk for a latex allergy, are at high risk for serious complications if they get the flu. Vaccination is voluntary, and we encourage people to talk to their health care provider about getting vaccinated.

What is mercury and what is thimerosal?! Thimerosal - a preservative used in some vaccines - is an organic compound that contains a form of mercury called ethylmercury. This is different from the type found in the environment called methylmercury. Studies comparing ethylmercury and methylmercury suggest that the type used in the flu vaccine is removed from the body more quickly than the type of mercury in the environment. The federal Food and Drug Administration (FDA) licenses flu vaccines and does not place any limits on thimerosal in vaccines for any people. There's no reliable evidence that the small doses of thimerosal in flu vaccine causes harm, except for minor swelling and redness at the injection site. A wide safety margin was included in the allowable levels for organic mercury exposure. The benefits of thimerosal-containing influenza vaccine outweigh any theoretical risk.

Where can I get more information? Flu vaccine information is on-line www.doh.wa.gov/YouandYourFamily/IllnessandDisease/Flu.aspx, www.fda.gov/BiologicsBloodVaccines/vaccines/QuestionsaboutVaccines/ucm070430.htm.

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH

[Filed June 14, 2012, 10:53 a.m.]

DECLARATION OF VACCINE SHORTAGE AND SUSPENSION OF RCW 70.95M.115(2) FOR CERTAIN INFLUENZA 2012 VACCINES IN MULTIDOSE VIAL PRESENTATIONS

WHEREAS RCW 70.95M.115(2) prohibits vaccinating a person who is known to be pregnant or under three years of age with influenza vaccine that contains more than 1.0 micrograms thimerosal per 0.5 milliliter dose. RCW 70.95M.115(3) authorizes the secretary of the department of health to temporarily suspend those limits if there is an outbreak of vaccine-preventable disease or a shortage of vaccine that complies with the limits.

Certain influenza vaccines produced in multidose vial exceed state thimerosal limits. Pregnant women or children under three years of age in Washington state may not ordinarily receive those vaccines. Influenza vaccines in single-dose presentations, whether a single-dose vial, prefilled syringe, or nasal spray, do not exceed state thimerosal limits. Pregnant women and children under three may receive single-dose influenza vaccine under Washington law.

On October 7, 2010, I declared a shortage of vaccine for the 2010 influenza virus that complies with the limits of RCW 70.95M.115(2). I also temporarily suspended the thimerosal limits imposed by RCW 70.95M.115(2) on use of the Influenza 2010 Trivalent Vaccines in multidose vial (5mL) presentations. On June 28, 2011, I extended this declaration and suspension to apply to the use of the Influenza 2011 Trivalent Vaccines in multidose via [vial] (5mL) for the 2011-2012 influenza season. The suspension will last until June 30, 2012. This was done to allow children under three and pregnant women access to protection against the 2011 influenza virus they would not otherwise have. It specifically applies to a subset of these two populations whom a health care provider determined to be at risk of allergic reaction to latex. The declaration also explained that I would determine if an extension of this declaration and suspension is appropriate for the 2012-2013 influenza season.

In July 2010, the federal Food and Drug Administration notified vaccine manufacturers that the tip caps used on prefilled syringes may contain natural rubber latex which may cause allergic reactions in latex-sensitive patients. Manufacturers issued notification to providers in the United States and changed their product label to include this information. The situation remained the same for the 2011 influenza vaccine supply. It continues for the 2012 influenza vaccine supply. Rubber stoppers to be used on prefilled syringes of influenza vaccine for the 2012-2013 influenza season may also contain natural rubber latex. Manufacturers will include the same notices in their product inserts. Influenza vaccine is produced annually and is in limited supply.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mary C. Selecky, secretary of the department of health, under RCW 70.95M.115(3), and under the circumstances set forth above and in my original declaration signed October 7, 2010, declare that there remains a shortage of vaccine that complies with the limits in RCW 70.95M.115(2) for influenza vaccine for pregnant women and children under age three who are at risk of allergic reaction to latex.

I also, under RCW 70.95M.115(3), effective immediately, temporarily extend the suspension of thimerosal limits imposed by RCW 70.95M.115(2) on use of the Influenza 2012 Trivalent Vaccines in multidose vial (5mL) presentations licensed for use in the United States and produced by the manufacturers GlaxoSmithKline, Novartis, Sanofi Pasteur, and CSL Biotherapies for administration to pregnant women and children under age three whom a health care provider determines to be at risk of allergic reaction to latex. The department has prepared a notice document that can be provided to persons known to be pregnant or lactating or the legal guardians of children under eighteen years old regarding the thimerosal content of influenza vaccine in multidose vials, as required by RCW 70.95M.115(3).

This suspension is in effect until June 30, 2013. At the end of this period of suspension, I will reassess the available supply of vaccine to determine if it is necessary to continue this declaration of vaccine shortage.

Signed this 14th day of June 2012, at Olympia, Washington.

FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS

[Filed June 19, 2012, 9:46 a.m.]

Semi-Annual Agenda for Rules Under Development
July 1 - December 31, 2012*DIVISION OF BANKS

- Chapter 208-512 WAC, amendments to bring state-chartered commercial banks and savings banks in compliance with Section 611 of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act, which takes effect January 21, 2013. This rule making is necessary to permit state-chartered commercial banks and savings banks to continue to engage in "derivatives transactions" on or after January 21, 2013. Section 611 of the Dodd-Frank Act in effect states that after this date, no state bank may engage in a "derivatives transactions" unless the state's lending limits laws (which are set forth in detail by rule in chapter 208-512 WAC) contain provisions addressing a state bank's credit exposure to "derivatives transactions." "Derivatives transactions" are common, since banks make regular investments in currency, interest-rate swaps, and asset-backed securities as part of their overall cash management and liquidity management strategies. This rule complies with the OFM guidelines implementing the governor's executive order suspending noncritical rule making and falls under the exemption that it is required by federal law and it is beneficial to or requested or supported by the regulated entities that it affects.

DIVISION OF CONSUMER SERVICES

- Chapter 208-660 WAC, amendments relating to the Mortgage Broker Practices Act. The advertising rules must be amended to protect consumers from financial harm, aid the regulated industries by having consistent rules within the mortgage marketplace, and to make technical changes for clarity and consistency. These rules comply with the OFM guidelines implementing the governor's executive order suspending noncritical rule making and falls under the exemption of "beneficial to or requested or supported by the regulated entities, local governments or small businesses that it affects" and "necessary to respond to current economic conditions or assist in long-term economic recovery, to include employment assistance, consumer protection or government reform."
- Chapter 208-620 WAC, amendments relating to the Consumer Loan Act. The advertising and loan servicing rules must be amended to protect consumers from financial harm, aid the regulated industries by having consistent rules within the mortgage marketplace, and to make technical changes for clarity and consistency. These rules comply with the OFM guidelines implementing the governor's executive order suspending noncritical rule making and falls under the exemption of "beneficial to or requested or supported by the regulated entities, local governments or small businesses that it affects" and "necessary to respond to current economic conditions or assist in long-term economic recovery, to include employment assistance, consumer protection or government reform."

DIVISION OF SECURITIES

- Chapter 460-24A WAC, amendments to rules relating to investment advisers. The Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act raised the threshold for federal jurisdiction from $25 million AUM to $100 million AUM. This will result in Washington gaining approximately three hundred new IA licensees that switch from federal to state jurisdiction, an increase of sixty percent. Rule making will be necessary to address regulatory issues presented by these new licensees. These rules comply with the OFM guidelines implementing the governor's executive order suspending noncritical rule making and falls under the exemption of "required by federal or state law."
- WAC 460-80-140, amendment to correct a citation relating to financial statements in franchise offerings. The rule contains a typo in the C.F.R. citation; correcting it will eliminate confusion by those it regulates because they will know which C.F.R. is referenced. This rule complies with the OFM guidelines implementing the governor's executive order suspending noncritical rule making and falls under the exemption of "beneficial to or requested or supported by the regulated entities, local governments, or small business that it affects."
- WAC 460-10A-160, amendment to remove references to securities manuals that are no longer in existence. Updating the rule will be beneficial [to] those that might want to rely on our manual exemption as the outdated references make it less relevant and available to securities issuers. This rule complies with the OFM guidelines implementing the governor's executive order suspending noncritical rule making and falls under the exemption of "beneficial to or requested or supported by the regulated entities, local governments, or small business that it affects."
