

WSR 17-23-001HEALTH CARE AUTHORITY

[Filed November 1, 2017, 2:08 p.m.]

Title or Subject: Medicaid State Plan Amendment (SPA) 17-0045.

Effective Date: November 2, 2107 [2017].

Description: The health care authority (HCA) intends to submit medicaid SPA 17-0045 in order to correct a typographical error for the high outlier adjustor factor listed for severity of illness (SOI) 1-4. The correct outlier adjustment factor for claims grouping to SOI 1 and 2 is eighty percent and 3 and 4 is ninety-five percent. The information currently in the State Plan reversed these percentages.

A copy of SPA 17-0045 is available for review. HCA would appreciate any input or concerns regarding this SPA. To request a copy of the SPA, you may contact the agency in your county listed in the table or the person named below. To submit comments, please contact the person named below (please note that all comments are subject to public review and disclosure, as are the names of those who comment).

NOTE: Effective March 20, 2017, official public notice of proposed medicaid SPAs is published on the agency's web site at the Public Notices link. As a convenience, the agency will continue to publish copies of SPA notices in the Washington State Register.

HEALTH CARE AUTHORITY

[Filed November 2, 2017, 9:04 a.m.]

NOTICE

Title or Subject: Medicaid State Plan Amendment (SPA)
 18-0002.

Effective Date: January 1, 2018.

Description: Collaborative care model.

The health care authority (HCA) intends to submit medicaid SPA 18-0002 in order to comply with SB 5883, Section 213 (1)(hh) to pay for the services provided through the collaborative care model (CoCM). SB 5883 provides sufficient funding for use of this model of care for medicaid services in both fee-for-service and managed care programs.

As directed by SB 5883, SPA 18-0002 is expected to increase the annual aggregate payments for behavioral health services paid to physicians, clinics and hospitals. Specifically this includes payment for services delivered within CoCM that are reimbursable by four procedure codes. Medical providers delivering care by CoCM will be able to provide and be reimbursed for these services. The agency will require providers delivering the services to show they have systems and staff in place to deliver the CoCM care model. The CoCM codes will be payable to medical providers delivering care in facility, nonfacility, federally qualified health centers and rural health clinics through fee-for-service and managed care plans. Specific estimated increases are:

- For state fiscal year 2018, up to $1.6 million.
- For state fiscal year 2019, up to $2.4 million.

SPA 18-0002 is in the development process; therefore a copy is not yet available for review. HCA would appreciate any input or concerns regarding this SPA. To request a copy when it becomes available, you may contact the agency in your county listed in the table or the person named below. To submit comments, please contact the person named below (please note that all comments are subject to public review and disclosure, as are the names of those who comment).

NOTE: Effective March 20, 2017, official public notice of proposed medicaid SPAs is published on the agency's web site at the Public Notices link. As a convenience, the agency will continue to publish copies of SPA notices in the Washington State Register.

HEALTH CARE AUTHORITY

[Filed November 2, 2017, 10:54 a.m.]

NOTICE

Title or Subject: Medicaid State Plan Amendment (SPA) 18-0001.

Effective Date: January 1, 2018.

Description: The health care authority (HCA) intends to submit medicaid SPA 18-0001 in order to maintain standards for medicaid programs that are based on the federal benefit rate (FBR). The annual FBR amount is based in part on cost-of-living adjustment, which increased by two percent for calendar year 2018.

Due to an increase in FBR, income and resource eligibility standards for medicaid programs that are based on FBR must also increase in accordance with federal requirements. This SPA is expected to have no impact on annual aggregate expenditures.

A copy of SPA 18-0001 is available for review. HCA would appreciate any input or concerns regarding this SPA. To request a copy of the SPA, you may contact the agency in your county listed in the table or the person named below. To submit comments, please contact the person named below (please note that all comments are subject to public review and disclosure, as are the names of those who comment).

For additional information, contact Stephen Kozak, Eligibility Policy and Service Delivery, P.O. Box 45534, Olympia, WA 98504-5534, phone 360-725-1343, TDD/TTY 800-848-6529, fax 360-664-2186, email Stephen.kozak@hca.wa.gov.

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE

[Filed November 7, 2017, 11:02 a.m.]

NOTICE OF REQUEST FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OPINION
WASHINGTON ATTORNEY GENERAL

The Washington attorney general routinely publishes notice of an opportunity to comment for opinion requests that we receive from the heads of state agencies, state legislators, and county prosecuting attorneys if we anticipate publishing a formal opinion in response to the request. We do so in order to provide members of the public with a chance to provide any legal analysis that they would like us to consider as we develop our opinion. In preparing any comments, please be aware that our opinion will provide our considered legal analysis of the question presented, and therefore comments that address the interpretation of the law are more helpful than comments that express an opinion as to what the law should be.

If you are interested in commenting on a request listed in this volume of the register, you should notify the attorney general's office of your interest by December 13, 2017. This is not the due date by which comments must be received, and we will consider any comments we receive before we complete our opinion. However, if you do not notify the attorney general's office of your interest in commenting on an opinion request by this date, the opinion may be issued before your comments have been received. You may notify the attorney general's office of your intention to comment by email to OpinionComments@atg.wa.gov or by writing to the Office of the Attorney General, Solicitor General Division, Attention Jeff Even, Deputy Solicitor General, P.O. Box 40100, Olympia, WA 98504-0100. When you notify the office of your intention to comment, you may be provided with a copy of the opinion request in which you are interested, information about the attorney general's opinion process, information on how to submit your comments, and a due date by which your comments must be received to ensure that they are fully considered.

If you are interested in receiving notice of new formal opinion requests via email, you may visit the attorney general's web site at <http://www.atg.wa.gov/ago%E2%80%9090opinions> for more information on how to join our AGO opinions list.

The attorney general's office seeks public input on the following opinion request(s):

Opinion Docket No. 17-11-01
Request by Representative Steve Bergquist

QUESTION(S)

1. May a city, county, or school district pass a measure allowing individuals who have reached the age of 17, but not yet reached the age of 18, to vote in elections of that jurisdiction?

2. If the answer to question 1 is "no," would a state statute that either allows individuals who have reached the age of 17, but not yet reached the age of 18, to vote in local elections or that allows a city, county, or school district to allow them to vote at local option, be consistent with Article VI, § 1 of the Washington Constitution?

[PROPOSED] NEW EVIDENCE RULE 413. IMMIGRATION STATUS

(a) Criminal Cases; Evidence Generally Inadmissible. In any criminal matter, evidence of a party's or a witness's immigration status shall not be admissible unless immigration status is an essential fact to prove an element of, or a defense to, the criminal offense with which the defendant is charged, or to show bias or prejudice of a witness pursuant to ER 607. TITLE
RULES FOR THE ENFORCEMENT OF LIMITED PRACTICE OFFICER CONDUCT (ELPOC)
ELPOC 15.5. DECLARATION

(a) Declaration. Each active LPO must file a trust account declaration as required by APR 12.

(b) Noncompliance. Failure to file the declaration may subject the an active LPO to a full audit of his or her books and records, or the Closing Firm's records, as provided in rule 15.1(e), upon request of the Clerk or disciplinary counsel to the discipline committee. A copy of any request made under this section must be served on the LPO. The request must be granted on a showing that the LPO has failed to comply with section (a) of this rule. If the LPO should later comply, the discipline committee has discretion to determine whether an audit should be conducted, and if so the scope of that audit. An LPO or Closing Firm audited under this section is liable for all actual costs of conducting such audit, and also a charge of $100 per day spent by the auditor in conducting the audit and preparing an audit report. Costs and charges are assessed in the same manner as costs under rule 5.3(e) suspension from practice pursuant to APR 17.

(a) The "auditor" shall mean the person or accounting firm conducting the audits and examinations specified in ELPOC Title 15.

(b) "Examination" shall mean a review and testing by the audit of the internal controls and procedures by an LPO or Closing Firm to receive, hold, disburse and account for money and property in which the client or other person has an interest using generally accepted auditing standards, to the extent they apply, without, however, making outside confirmations. In order to conduct such review and testing, the auditor shall have access to all of the internal books and records kept by the LPO or Closing Firm which comprise the LPO's or Closing Firm's financial records showing financial transactions involving the receipt of client's funds for fees, costs, or other purposes, either from the client or third persons and all expenditures by the Closing Firm or LPO for clients or third persons and all distributions to the LPO or LPOs including but not necessarily limited to all journals, ledgers, books of accounts, canceled checks, deposit slips, bank statements, check registers, cash accounts, receipts, correspondence, records of accounts receivable, income and expense statements, balance sheets, tax returns of all types, federal, state, county, and city excepting, however, income tax returns.

(c) "Audit" shall encompass "examination" but in addition may include positive or negative confirmation from external sources.

~~REGULATION 102. PERSONS AUTHORIZED TO CONDUCT AUDITS~~

~~Audits shall be conducted by an auditor or auditor(s) provided by the Board.~~

~~REGULATION 103. EXAMINATION AND AUDIT REPORTS~~

~~(a) The auditor shall furnish a written report of each examination or audit to the Board.~~

~~(b) The report shall contain the date of the audit or examination, the name of the Closing Firm or LPO, and a statement of the scope of the examination or audit. In respect to each examination, it shall include a statement to the effect that either 1) as a result of the examination, an audit or further examination is indicated, or 2) during the course of the examination, the auditor has not observed anything which would indicate a need for further examination or audit at this time. In respect to each audit, the report shall state either 1) as a result of the audit, the auditor concludes that LPORPC 1.12A and B have not been complied with (stating the particulars); or 2) as a result of the audit, the auditor has not observed anything which would indicate LPORPC 1.12A and B have not been complied with. The auditor shall further state an opinion, as to whether the LPO or Closing Firm has cooperated as required by ELPOC 15.2, giving the particulars if lack of cooperation is claimed.~~

~~(c) Upon request by the Chair, the auditor shall make available the working papers in respect to particular examinations or audits, for review by the Board and shall consult with the Board in respect to particular examinations and audits.~~

~~(d) Upon conclusion of the examination or audit, the auditor shall make available to the LPO or Closing Firm a copy of the audit report.~~

~~(e) The auditor shall preserve inviolate all confidences and secrets of clients of the examined LPO or Closing Firm. No client name or information which would permit the identification of a particular client shall be revealed in the working papers or the report of the auditor, except that the name or names of clients who have filed complaints with the Board may be released.~~

~~(f) When the audit is concluded, if it is determined pursuant to Regulation 104 that no further investigation, examination or action is appropriate, the Board's copies of the audit report, working papers, or other materials relating to the audit shall be destroyed, except that the Board shall maintain a record showing the identity of any LPO or Closing Firm audited and the dates of the audit to ensure that the restrictions of Regulation 105 are complied with.~~

In addition, the Chair may order other actions by the LPO and Closing Firm as are necessary to ensure that the LPO's or Closing Firm's handling of client funds complies with the requirements of the LPORPC.~~

~~(b) Auditor's Opinions Advisory Only. The opinions expressed in the report of the Auditor shall be advisory only. They shall not in and of themselves constitute findings of fact~~

~~in any disciplinary proceedings against any LPO unless so stipulated by the LPO or LPO's counsel.~~

~~REGULATION 105. METHOD OF SELECTION OF LPO AND CLOSING FIRMS TO BE EXAMINED~~

~~(a) At such time and from time to time as the Board determines, random examination of LPOs or Closing Firms may be conducted. Procedures shall be established by the Board for the selection of the LPOs or Closing Firms to be examined which 1) will utilize the principle of random selection, and 2) will distribute the examinations among the congressional districts of the state substantially in the ratio that the number of LPOs in each district bears to the total number of active LPOs in the state. If the number drawn is that of an LPO who is an employee of a Closing Firm, the Closing Firm shall be examined. If the number is that of an active LPO who is an independent business owner, the active LPO's records shall be examined. If the number is that of an LPO who, either as an individual or as a Closing Firm employee, has been audited in the twenty-four (24) months immediately preceding the drawing, the Chair may in the Chair's discretion excuse the LPO or Closing Firm from examination.~~

~~(b) Upon consent of an active LPO, the LPO's books and records or those of a Closing Firm may be examined even though the active LPO's number has not been selected randomly.~~

~~(c) The Chair may at all times upon the receipt of information that a particular LPO or Closing Firm may not be in compliance with LPORPC 1.12A and B authorize an examination.~~

~~REGULATION 106. CONTENTS OF LPO DECLARATION~~

~~Annually, the Board shall mail to each active LPO, a written declaration to be completed and delivered to the Board on or before July 1 of that year. The declaration shall be comprised of two parts. Part One shall be completed and signed by each active LPO. Part Two shall be completed and signed by the individual who manages the trust account(s) for the Closing Firm, on behalf of the Closing Firm and all LPOs employed in the Closing Firm. APR 8
NONMEMBER LAWYER LICENSES TO PRACTICE LAW

(a) - (e) Unchanged.

(f) Exception for House Counsel. A lawyer admitted to the practice of law in any jurisdiction may apply to the Bar for a limited license to practice law as in-house counsel in this state when the lawyer is employed in Washington as a lawyer exclusively for a profit or not for profit corporation, including its subsidiaries and affiliates, association, or other business entity, that is not a government entity, and whose lawful business consists of activities other than the practice of law or the provision of legal services. The lawyer shall apply by:

(i) filing an application in the form and manner that may be prescribed by the Bar;

(ii) presenting satisfactory proof of (I) admission to the practice of law and current good standing in any jurisdiction and (II) good moral character and fitness to practice;

(iii) filing an affidavit from an officer, director, or general counsel of the applicant's employer in this state attesting to the fact the applicant is employed as a lawyer for the employer, including its subsidiaries and affiliates, and the nature of the employment conforms to the requirements of this rule;

(iv) paying the application fees required of lawyer applicants for admission under APR 3; and

(v) furnishing whatever additional information or proof that may be required in the course of investigating the applicant.

(1) Upon approval of the application by the Bar, the lawyer shall take the Oath ~~for the Practice of Law of Attorney~~, pay the current year's annual license fee and any mandatory assessments required of active lawyer members. The Bar shall transmit its recommendation to the Supreme Court which may enter an order granting the lawyer a license to engage in the limited practice of law under this section.

(2) The practice of a lawyer licensed under this section shall be limited to practice exclusively for the employer, including its subsidiaries and affiliates, furnishing the affidavit required by the rule and shall not include (i) appearing before a court or tribunal as a person admitted to practice law in this state, and (ii) offering legal services or advice to the public, or (iii) holding oneself out to be so engaged or authorized.

(3) All business cards and employer letterhead used by a lawyer licensed under this section shall state clearly that the lawyer is licensed to practice in Washington as in-house counsel.

(4) A lawyer licensed under this section shall pay to the Bar an annual license fee in the maximum amount required of active lawyer members and any mandatory assessments required of active lawyer members of the Bar.

(5) The practice of a lawyer licensed under this section shall be subject to the Rules of Professional Conduct, the Rules for Enforcement of Lawyer Conduct, and to all other laws and rules governing lawyers admitted to the active practice of law in this state. Jurisdiction shall continue whether or not the lawyer retains the limited license and irrespective of the residence of the lawyer.

(6) The lawyer shall promptly report to the Bar a change in employment, a change in admission or license status in any jurisdiction where the applicant has been admitted to the practice of law, or the commencement of any formal disciplinary proceeding in any jurisdiction where the applicant has been admitted to the practice of law.

(7) The limited license granted under this section shall be automatically terminated when employment by the employer furnishing the affidavit required by this rule is terminated, the lawyer has been admitted to the practice of law pursuant to any other provision of the APR, the lawyer fails to comply with the terms of this rule, the lawyer fails to maintain current good standing in at least one other jurisdiction where the lawyer has been admitted to the practice of law, or on suspension or disbarment for discipline in any jurisdiction where the lawyer has been admitted to the practice of law. If a lawyer's employment is terminated but the lawyer, within three months from the last day of employment, is employed by an employer filing the affidavit required by (iii), the license shall be reinstated.

(8) A lawyer admitted in another United States jurisdiction and authorized to provide legal services under this Rule may provide legal services in this jurisdiction for no fee through a Bar qualified legal services provider, as that term is defined in APR 1. If such services involve representation before a court or tribunal, the lawyer shall seek permission under APR 8(b) and any fees for such permission shall be waived. The prohibition against compensation in this paragraph shall not prevent a qualified legal services provider from reimbursing a lawyer authorized to practice under this rule for actual expenses incurred while rendering legal services under this pro bono exception. In addition, a qualified legal services provider shall be entitled to receive all court awarded attorney's fees for pro bono representation rendered by the lawyer.

(g) [Unchanged]

APR 14
LIMITED PRACTICE RULE FOR FOREIGN LAW CONSULTANTS

(a) - (b) [Unchanged]

(c) Procedure. The Bar shall approve or disapprove applications for admission of Foreign Law Consultants licenses. Additional proof of any facts stated in the application may be required by the Bar. In the event of the failure or refusal of the applicant to furnish any information or proof, or to answer any inquiry of the Board pertinent to the pending application, the Bar may deny the application. Upon approval of the application by the Bar, the Bar shall recommend to the Supreme Court that the applicant be granted a license for the purposes herein stated. The Supreme Court may enter an order licensing to practice those applicants it deems qualified, conditioned upon such applicant's:

(1) Taking and filing with the Clerk of the Supreme Court the Oath for the Practice of Law of Attorney pursuant to APR 5; and

(2) Paying to the Bar the license fee and any mandatory assessments for the current year in the maximum amount required of active lawyer members; and

(3) Filing with the Bar in writing his or her address in the State of Washington, or the name and address of his or her registered agent as provided in APR 13, together with a statement that the applicant has read the Rules of Professional Conduct and Rules for Enforcement of Lawyer Conduct, is familiar with their contents and agrees to abide by them.

GR 9 Cover Sheet
Suggested Change to RAP 2.4(c)

(A) Name of Proponent: Washington Court of Appeals Rules Committee.

(B) Spokesperson: Honorable Kevin M. Korsmo, Chair, Washington Court of Appeals Rules Committee.

(C) Purpose: The word "post-trial" is deleted in recognition of the fact that not all final judgments are entered following a trial. In situations where there was no trial, such as summary judgment or the granting of a pre-trial motion to dismiss, the language of the existing rule could be read as limiting the scope of review on those occasions where the final order was subject to reconsideration. This amendment conforms the language of the rule to existing practice.

As originally adopted in 1976, this provision was written to parallel the language of rule 5.2(e), a rule addressing the effect of post-trial motions on the timeliness of a notice of appeal. Both provisions included the word "post-trial" in the rule title and the text of the rule. Both rules were amended in 1994. See 124 Wn.2d at 1110-1113. The amendment deleted "post-trial" from rule 5.2(e) and replaced it with "appealable order." A new rule, 2.4(f), was created to conform to amended rule 5.2(e) and, also, did not include the word "post-trial" among its language. Rule 2.4(c) was amended consistently with both new rule 2.4(f) and the amended rule 5.2(e), but the word "post-trial" was not deleted from rule 2.4(c).

(D) Hearing: None recommended.

(E) Expedited Consideration: Expedited consideration is not requested.

 CHIEF JUSTICE

GR 9 Cover Sheet
Suggested Changes to RALJ 9.3

(A) Name of Proponent: Washington Defender Association

(B) Spokesperson: Magda Baker, Misdemeanor Resource Attorney, Washington Defender Association

(C) Purpose: The Washington Defender Association suggests changes to RALJ 9.3 that would require a superior court judge who decides a criminal RALJ appeal to consider the defendant's current or likely future ability to pay before imposing costs of appeal. The proposed language is similar to language the Washington Supreme Court added to RAP 14.2 effective January 31, 2017, and would give indigent people convicted of misdemeanors the same ability to appeal their convictions without having to weigh financial considerations that people convicted of felonies currently have. It would also increase uniformity between the RALJs and the RAPs.

The Washington Supreme Court has recognized problems with legal financial obligations (LFOs) when courts impose them on indigent people. These problems include increased difficulty becoming a productive member of society after a conviction, questionable recoupment of money by the government, and unequal administration of LFOs. See State v. Blazina, 182 Wn.2d 827, 836-37 (2015). These obstacles apply to misdemeanors as well as felonies. Changing RALJ 9.3 to more closely mirror RAP 14.2 would decrease the LFOs courts must impose on indigent misdemeanants.

(D) Hearing: None recommended.

(E) Expedited Consideration: Expedited consideration is not requested.

[Suggested changes to RALJ 9.3(a) and (g)]

RALJ 9.3 COSTS

(a) ~~Party Entitled to Costs in Civil and Criminal Appeals.~~

(1) Civil Appeals. The party that substantially prevails on a civil appeal shall be awarded costs on appeal. Costs will be imposed against a party whose appeal is involuntarily dismissed. Costs will be awarded in a case dismissed by reason of a voluntary withdrawal of an appeal only if the superior court so directs at the time the order is entered permitting the voluntary withdrawal of the appeal.

(2) Criminal Appeals. The party that substantially prevails on a criminal appeal shall be awarded costs on appeal unless the superior court judge determines the criminal defendant does not have the current or likely future ability to pay such costs. Costs will be imposed against a party whose appeal is involuntarily dismissed unless that party is a criminal defendant and the superior court judge determines the criminal defendant does not have the current or likely future ability to pay such costs. When the trial court has entered an order that a criminal defendant is indigent for purposes of appeal, that finding of indigency remains in effect unless the superior court judge determines by a preponderance of the evidence that the criminal defendant's financial circumstances have significantly improved since the last determination of indigency. The superior court judge may consider any evidence offered to determine the individual's current or future ability to pay. Costs will be awarded in a case dismissed by reason of a voluntary withdrawal of an appeal only if the superior court so directs at the time the order is entered permitting the voluntary withdrawal of the appeal.

(b) - (f) [No changes.]

(g) Reasonable Attorney Fees. A request for reasonable attorney fees should not be made in the cost bill. The request should be made as provided in rule 11.2. In a criminal case attorney fees are subject to rule 9.3 (a)(2).

Reviser's note: The brackets and enclosed material in the text of the above section occurred in the copy filed by the agency and appear in the Register pursuant to the requirements of RCW 34.08.040.

OFFICE OF THE INSURANCE COMMISSIONER

[Filed November 22, 2017, 10:03 a.m.]

Technical Assistance Advisory 2017-01A ^{1 2}

TO: All Licensees with Consumers residing in the State of Washington

FROM: Insurance Commissioner, Mike Kreidler

DATE: November 13, 2017

SUBJECT: Two Day Notification Requirement for Security Breaches

A security breach is the unauthorized acquisition of data that compromises the security, confidentiality, or integrity of personal information maintained by a person or business.³

Two types of information are included within the security breach notification requirements:

- personal information that seems reasonably likely to subject consumers to a risk of criminal activity,⁴ and
- unsecured protected health information which compromises the security or privacy of the consumer's protected information.⁵

If a security breach of either of these types occurs, all licensees must notify the Insurance Commissioner. The notification must be made in writing and must include the number of consumers potentially affected and the actions being taken by the licensee.

For breaches of personal information, the notification must be made within two (2) business days after determining that notification must be sent to consumers or customers, and that the breach seems reasonably likely to subject consumers to a risk of criminal activity.⁶

For breaches of unsecured protected health information, the notification must be made within two (2) business days after the breach occurs. A security breach of unsecured protected health information occurs the first day on which the breach is known to the licensee or the date when the breach should have been known to the licensee if reasonable diligence had been used.⁷ A licensee is considered to have knowledge of a breach if the event is known, or, by exercising reasonable diligence, would have been known to any person who works for or is an agent of the licensee.⁸

Failure to notify the Insurance Commissioner is considered an unfair practice.⁹ It may result in the levying of fines or an order to cease and desist the selling of insurance in the state of Washington under RCW 48.30.010.

For a single breach of personal information that involves more than five hundred (500) Washington residents, the person or business must notify the Washington State Attorney General's Office.¹⁰ The breach of unprotected health information must also be reported and notification provided pursuant to 45 C.F.R. 164.400 through 164.410.

For any questions related to security breach notifications, please contact Dan Halpin, Compliance Analyst, at DanH@oic.wa.gov, or (360) 725-7089.
