POLICY STATEMENT
DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH
 [Filed August 5, 2021, 1:30 p.m.]

This memo serves as notice that the board of osteopathic medicine and surgery (board) is withdrawing the policy statement, PS20-001 Enforcement of AIDS Education and Training Rules, which was filed September 1, 2020, and published in WSR 20-18-077.

The board is withdrawing this policy because the policy was created to indicate that the board would not be enforcing rules requiring AIDS education and training for licensure, while waiting for rules to be repealed. The rules were repealed under WSR 21-02-017 on December 28, 2020, and this policy [is] no longer necessary.

Individuals requiring information on this rule should contact Tracie Drake, program manager for the board of osteopathic medicine and surgery at 360-236-4766.

Advancing equitable access to justice commitments of statewide agencies, organizations, and individuals seeking to collaborate and coordinate efforts, a statewide Informal Domestic Relations Trial Rule affords families the opportunity for equitable accessible substantive and procedural justice regardless of geographical circumstance.

To equitably access substantive and procedural justice in all Superior Court Domestic Relations systems, the people of Washington State imminently require innovative, timely, cost effective, and efficient transformative options statewide.

A general statewide Informal Domestic Relations Trial Rules promotes a less adversarial process for families and provides consistency in procedural process, thereby reducing associated risks of trauma compounded within the system itself and helps address access barriers for many experiencing the legal system in domestic relations cases; overwhelmingly those most disparately impacted by the justice system as a whole, including people of color, victims of domestic and sexual violence, self-represented and low income persons, as they maneuver through an overburdened legal system.¹

In 2008, Barbara Babb, author of Reevaluating Where We Stand: A Comprehensive Survey of America's Family Justice Systems wrote, "Court reform relative to family law matters has risen steadily over the past decade. States have restructured their justice systems to handle increasingly complex family law cases and burgeoning family law caseloads."²

And, as Rebecca Aviel noted in 2018 Fordham Law Review article Family Law and the New Access to Justice,³ "... family court ... reformers are implementing transformative changes that are consistent with access-to-justice values: these reforms are delivering dispute-resolution mechanisms that are faster, cheaper, and easier to maneuver, particularly for self-represented litigants."

The suggested Rule is not in conflict with existing statutes, case law or other court rules and is similar to Thurston County LSPR 94.03F Informal Family Law Trials [Updated Rule, January 13, 2020] and King County Emergency Local Rule Amendment LFLR 23. Informal Family Law Trials effective September 2020. Uniform, comprehensive Washington State domestic relations reform has intersectional systemic impacts, and an IDRT rule may provide a beneficial resource to superior courts and others committed to the equitable access to justice. The suggested rule recognizes the inherent authority and duty of all courts to manage their own affairs, so as to achieve the orderly and expeditious disposition of cases, prevent undue congestion in the court system, conserve scarce judicial resources, and manage caseloads fairly and expeditiously for all justice involved persons in Washington state.

As the 2015 report Escalating Costs of Civil Litigation in Washington recommended, there is a basis for a two-tier litigation model in Washington Superior Courts. The Informal Domestic Relations Trial, or IDRT, is complimentary to such a two-tier system recommended by the task force. While not specifically recommended in the July 2016 WSBA BOG Report, the BOG Task Force acknowledged family law has a "unique constellation of concerns" and reserved further consideration of recommendations within the ECCL "... to future efforts except to the extent its recommendations also address this area of the law."

Similarly, the October 2015 Washington State Supreme Court Civil Legal Needs Study Update Committee chaired by Justice Wiggins identified "Family Related Problems" as a "Substantive Problem Area". The 2017 Legal Services Corporation Report: The Justice Gap: Measuring the Unmet Civil Legal Needs of Low Income Americans indicates "Twenty-seven percent of households with parents or guardians of children under the age of 18 have experienced a civil legal problem related to children or custody" between 2016 and 2017. In addition, the report identified civil legal problems related to family affect 17% of all low-income households ... including domestic violence or sexual assault and filing for divorce or legal separation.

The suggested statewide rule for an Informal Domestic Relations Trial option is an effort to provide access to justice in family law matters for unrepresented families in all Washington State Superior Courts. The IDRT also provides access to those individuals across Washington who can afford the Traditional Domestic Relations Trial, but elect not to do so, seeking a less adversarial resolution to their domestic legal matters.

Despite the investments of talent and resources of many during the past two decades, including the Washington State Supreme Court and the Office of Civil Legal Aid, BJA, and other qualified entities, Washington courts and domestic relations practice continue to lag "behind the times" in transformative reform. Adoption of an Informal Domestic Relations Trial Rule is where Washington State can begin, truly, as the Civil Legal Needs Study opined, "Meeting the Challenge" by "Turning Findings to Action".⁴

While family law practitioners and the public may experience "silo effects" as local jurisdictions attempt to formulate local rules in response to domestic relations administrative issues, Washington State has a wealth of existing research and resources available for collaboration including, but not limited to, the ATJ, BJA, WSBA, SCJA, AOC, WSACC, ATJB, OCLA, ECCL, Juvenile and Family Court Improvement Program, Unified Family Court Program, Supreme Court MJC and GJC Commissions, our law schools, as well as professional associations such as AFCC. In light of the urgency due to COVID related impacts, implementation of a statewide IDRT rule provides an opportunity for comprehensive statewide uniform domestic relations reform, providing best practice guidance as multiple local and statewide court recovery and unrepresented litigant groups discuss how to best move forward.

Our surrounding geographical neighbors in Oregon, Idaho and Alaska, implemented IDRT standards as early as 2015. A similar rule is in effect in Utah, and in 2017, a pilot program was launched in the Seventh Judicial District in Iowa resulting in the Iowa Judicial Branch Informal Family Law Trial, implemented statewide by order of the Iowa State Supreme Court on December 1, 2020. Similarly, the 2018-2021 long range plan from the Florida Commission on Access to Civil Justice includes study and research of Informal Domestic Relations Trial.

In Alaska, the Rule, as amended through July 25, 2019, governing the Informal Domestic Relations Trial is found at Alaska R. Civ P. 16.2. In Idaho the Informal Domestic Relations trial rule is found at Idaho Rule of Family Procedure 713. In Oregon the Informal Domestic Relations Trial is found at R 8.120, under Chapter 8: Domestic Relations Proceedings. In Utah the rule is found at Utah District Court Rule 4-904. Information concerning the Informal Family Law Trial Pilot Program can be accessed through the District Court Administration for the Seventh Judicial District of Iowa.

GR9 (e)(2)(D) Hearing: Due to the implementation of Thurston County, LSPR 94.03F Informal Family Law Trials [Updated Rule, January 13, 2020] and in King County by Emergency Local Rule Amendment LFLR 23 Informal Family Law Trials effective September 2020 as well as the number of longstanding published Washington State Committee and Task Force reports, data, research, and studies containing recommendations to overcome barriers to equal access to justice, it is not believed a public hearing regarding a general statewide Informal Domestic Relations Trial suggested rule is necessary.

In addition, information from the currently implemented Informal Domestic Relations Trials in Alaska, Idaho, Iowa, Oregon and Utah Courts is readily accessible.

GR9 (e)(2)(E) Expedited Consideration: 2020 has presented unprecedented challenges and unprecedented opportunities, as evidenced by the dedication of countless individuals in local jurisdictions as well as through statewide task forces and workgroups addressing best practices during court recovery. The opportunity to uniformly impact barriers impacting equitable access to justice is now.

The Board for Judicial Administration recommends domestic case standards of "90 percent of all domestic relations cases should be adjudicated within 10 months of the date of filing of the information, 98 percent within 14 months of filing, and 100 percent within 18 months". Yet in 2019, 11,125 families⁵, up from 9,162 families in 2018, had domestic relations cases pending resolution over 18 months in Washington State Superior Courts⁶, as opposed to 2,371 families with domestic relations cases pending resolution over 18 months in 2000.⁷

While the case management percentages may appear to have remained fairly consistent on paper, we have yet to see the 2020 impact COVID will have on these statistics. Yet, the number of cases reported do not reflect the financial and psychological impact of backlogged, delayed, and adversarial legal proceedings experienced by children, youth, parents, relatives and employers throughout our state, most often the most vulnerable, marginalized, and impoverished members of our communities. COVID has only made matters more traumatic and as such, expedited consideration of a statewide rule is warranted for families, courts, and communities.

Even before COVID brought attention to the imminent need for civil legal equity throughout our state, one participant in the October 2015 Washington State Supreme Court Civil Legal Needs Study Update was quoted in the report as asking "Will people in my position, or worse off than I, get any sort of meaningful help?". The reply, "The answer to these questions, and so many others, is up to all of us." Despite the Campaign for Equal Justice funding legal aid for 31,000 families in poverty in 2018, two years pre-COVID, at least 3 out of 4 low income individuals are not able to access legal assistance when it is needed.⁸ Private practice attorneys provide valuable pro bono service. Yet, valuable hours of research and committee time have yielded no discernable implementation of recommendations designed specifically to address access to justice for all. There is a critical need for the Court to address the domestic relations judicial process for low income and other marginalized families by implementation of a statewide rule, which regardless of geographical location and local court resources, can promote equity and consistency.

As noted by Jane C. Murphy & Jana B. Singer, Moving Family Dispute Resolution from the Court System to the Community, 75 MD.L. REV. ENDNOTES 9 (2016), "Everyone who works in family law ... agrees on two things: family court is not good for families, and litigation is not good for children." Respectfully, it would appear that upon which we are not able to agree continues to cause barriers for implementing best practices for the families of Washington State.

Based upon nearly 20 years of research, studies, committees and task forces, respectfully, I request expeditious review and consideration of a statewide general IDRT system for domestic relations cases; a recommendation within the preveue and authority of the Washington State Supreme Court.

For disparately affected persons seeking timely and less traumatic adjudication of their domestic relations matters, as well as for the fiscal impact on counties and Superior Courts now exacerbated by the unprecedented COVID challenges of 2020 and beyond, expedited consideration is respectfully requested.

GR 9 SUGGESTED NEW GENERAL RULE TEXT INFORMAL DOMESTIC RELATIONS TRIAL (IDRT)

(1) Upon the consent of both parties, Informal Domestic Relations Trials may be held to resolve any or all issues in original actions or modification for dissolution of marriage, separate maintenance, invalidity, child support, parenting plans, residential schedules, and child custody filed under RCW chapters 26.09; 26.19; 26.26A; 26.26B; and 26.27.

(2) The parties may select an Informal Domestic Relations Trial within 14 days of a case subject to this rule being at issue. The parties must file a Trial Process Selection and Waiver for Informal Domestic Relations Trial in substantially the form specified at _____. This form must be accepted by all Superior Courts.

(3) The Informal Domestic Relations Trial will be conducted as follows:

(a) At the beginning of an Informal Domestic Relations Trial the parties will be asked to affirm that they understand the rules and procedures of the Informal Domestic Relations Trial process, they are consenting to this process freely and voluntarily, and they have not been threatened or promised anything for agreeing to the Informal Domestic Relations Trial process.

(b) The Court may ask the parties or their lawyers for a brief summary of the issues to be decided.

(c) The moving party will be allowed to speak to the Court under oath concerning all issues in dispute. The party is not questioned by counsel, but may be questioned by the Court to develop evidence required by any statute or rule, for example, the applicable requirements of the Washington Child Support Schedule if child support is at issue.

(d) The parties will not be subject to cross examination. However, the Court will ask the non-moving party or their counsel whether there are any other areas the party wishes the Court to inquire about. The Court will inquire into these areas if requested and if relevant to an issue to be decided by the Court.

(e) The process in subsections (3)(c) and (3)(d) is then repeated for the other party.

(f) Expert reports will be received as exhibits. Upon request of either party, the expert will be sworn and subjected to questioning by counsel, the parties, or the Court.

(g) The Court will receive any exhibits offered by the parties. The Court will determine what weight, if any, to give each exhibit. The Court may order the record to be supplemented.

(h) The parties or their counsel will then be offered the opportunity to respond briefly to the statements of the other party.

(i) The parties or their counsel will be offered the opportunity to make a brief legal argument.

(j) At the conclusion of the case, the Court shall render judgment. The Court may take the matter under advisement, but best efforts will be made to issues prompt judgments.

(k) The Court may modify these procedures as justice and fundamental fairness requires.

(4) The Court may refuse to allow the parties to utilize the Informal Domestic Relations Trial procedure at any time and may also direct that a case proceed in the traditional manner of trial even after an Informal Domestic Relations Trial has been commenced but before judgment has been entered.

(5) A party who has previously agreed to proceed with an Informal Domestic Relations Trial may file a motion to opt out of the Informal Domestic Relations Trial provided that this motion is filed not less than ten calendar days before trial. This time period may be modified or waived by the Court upon a showing of good cause. A change in the type of trial to be held may result in a change in the trial date.

Reviser's note: The typographical error in the above section occurred in the copy filed by the agency and appears in the Register pursuant to the requirements of RCW 34.08.040.

Policy 17-1: Determining faculty eligibility for summer/short class session. This policy clarifies a higher education institution's role in defining faculty for the purposes of PEBB benefits and clarifies higher education institutions must consider class sessions that have different time frames than traditional quarters and semesters, including summer sessions, when determining a faculty's eligibility for PEBB benefits and the employer contribution toward PEBB insurance coverage. This policy also provides a method for calculating the percentage of full-time for faculty teaching these nontraditional class sessions and a method for determining when the employer contribution toward PEBB insurance coverage begins and ends for faculty teaching these nontraditional class sessions.

Policy 17-3: Determining faculty eligibility for off-quarter/semester or for decreases in workload. This policy clarifies when an employee in a faculty position qualifies for the employer contribution toward the PEBB program benefits during an off-quarter/semester or when there is a decrease in workload.

RULES OF COURT

GR 9 Cover Sheet for new General Rule:
Jury Selection by Video Conference

Name of Proponent—King County Superior Court. Our committee for drafting this rule: Judges Sean O'Donnell, Josephine Wiggs-Martin, Andrea Robertson, Brian McDonald, Melinda Young, Tanya Thorp, Sam Chung, Sandy Widlan and Jim Rogers

Spokesperson—Judge O'Donnell or Judge Rogers

Purpose—Remote voir dire has become a standard business practice for King County Superior Court during the pandemic. Jurors prefer it. Their time is better used. In the old, in-person system, jurors have experienced long "wait" times, missed work, and expenses for childcare and parking in order to travel to court in person, assemble, and await instructions and directions. This new virtual method promises to improve the process and provide a more accessible, affordable, and efficient means for citizens from all walks of life to perform, their civic duty and add their voices to this crucial process.

We believe that lawyers get better information as questionnaires are always given out. Our anecdotal experience is that jurors are more diverse in all aspects, racial, ethnic, economic. There is less "speechifying" by lawyers and more information gathering.

The proposed rule does not conflict with any known statute, case law or court rules. The proposed rule is intended to be harmonious with existing CrR 3.4(d), which currently allows video proceedings to be ordered in preliminary appearances, bail hearings and arraignments, and allows plea hearings by agreement. As the Court knows, a current emergency order allows for remote voir dire.

Hearing—We do not believe that a public hearing is necessary.

Expedited Consideration—As long as the emergency order remains in effect, expedited consideration is not necessary.

Proposed General Rule

Jury Selection by Video Conference

(a) Scope of rule. This rule addresses the procedures for conducting jury selection by video conference.

(b) Jury selection by video conference. In all cases, jury selection may be conducted by video conference in which all participants can simultaneously see, hear, and speak with each other. The video and audio should be of sufficient quality to ensure participants are easily seen and understood.

(c) Procedures prior to jury selection. The court may divide the venire into smaller groups and determine the number of video participants per voir dire session. The court shall confirm with prospective jurors that they can participate in jury selection by video conference. The court shall not excuse potential jurors from jury service who cannot participate in jury selection by video conference due to lack of resources or access and shall arrange for alternative methods, including but not limited to in person voir dire, for such potential jurors.

(d) Procedures during jury selection. When conducting jury selection over video, the court shall:

- a. Confirm that all potential jurors can see and hear the court and parties;
 - b. Inform potential jurors that their cameras must remain on and that they must remain in camera view throughout jury selection;
 - c. Instruct potential jurors that (i) their full care and attention must be on jury selection, (ii) that all other devices should be turned off during jury selection, and (iii) they should be alone in the space in which they are participating in jury selection unless extraordinary circumstances are present which the court finds sufficient to allow the juror's participation;
 - d. Inform the parties and potential jurors that any visual, video, or audio recording, other than the official record, of the hearing is prohibited absent court permission; and
 - e. Prohibit jurors from using filters or virtual backgrounds or other programs or applications to alter their appearance in any way or the appearance of the space in which they are physically located while participating in jury selection. A juror may use a virtual background with prior approval of the court. Any approved background must be a plain, blurred, or otherwise non-distracting.
- (e) Public access. The court shall ensure that all hearings conducted pursuant to this rule are open to the public and that the public shall be able to simultaneously see and hear all participants.

 CHIEF JUSTICE

GR 9 Cover Sheet for amendment to CR 39

Name of Proponent—King County Superior Court. Many judges were involved in the drafting and more were involved in creating and refining our procedures.

Spokesperson—Judge O'Donnell or Judge Rogers

Purpose—Create standard procedures, consistent with due process and existing rules, for remote civil jury trials. King County Superior Court has now successfully held many, many of these trials and we draw on our experience for this. This has been imperative for access to justice and will be helpful as we anticipate the remote jury trial continues.

Hearing—We take no position.

Expedited Consideration—As long as emergency rules remain in place, no expedited consideration is needed.

Proposed Amendments to CR 39
TRIAL BY JURY OR BY THE COURT

(-) Issues—How Tried. [Reserved. See RCW 4.40.010 through 4.40.070.]

(a) - (c) [No change.]

(d) Manner of Trials.

(1) Generally. Except as otherwise authorized by these rules or by statute, all trials upon the merits shall be conducted in open court and so far as convenient in a regular courtroom.

(2) Video Conference Trials.

A. By the Court. On the court's own initiative, or on motion of the parties or their attorneys of record, a trial by the court may occur over video conference, in which all participants can simultaneously see, hear, and speak with each other. The video and audio should be of sufficient quality to ensure participants are easily seen and understood.

i. Before ordering a video-conference trial by the court, the court shall consider the number of parties, the number of trial witnesses, the type of evidence to be presented, whether the parties have significant non-financial interests at stake, whether the use of remote interpreting services will detract from the presentation of evidence, the parties' ability to conduct a video conference trial, and any other relevant circumstances.

B. By Jury. On the court's own initiative, or on motion of the parties or their attorneys of record, a trial by jury may occur by video conference. Any jury trial occurring by video conference must allow all participants to simultaneously see, hear, and speak with each other. i. When there is written agreement of the parties. The agreement shall be filed with the court before the start of trial; or

ii. Over objection of a party or parties for good cause in compelling circumstances. In conducting trial by jury over video conference, the court shall ensure appropriate safeguards are in place; and:

1. 2. Shall enter written findings outlining its reasons for conducting trial by video conference. The court shall analyze the length of time trial has been pending, the potential impact of not conducting the trial by video conference, such as the availability of witnesses and preservation of evidence, and any other considerations in support of its decision.

(3) Notice. Whether on its own initiative or by motion of the parties or their attorneys of record, no video conference trial shall be heard unless the court holds a hearing no fewer than 30 days before the trial date. The parties or their attorneys of record may agree to this hearing occurring within 30 days of trial.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

[Filed August 18, 2021, 9:39 a.m.]

The department of commerce (commerce) is building a program to administer grants to diaper banks across the state. We are opening a comment period on August 18 to allow stakeholders an opportunity to tell us what they would like included in the program.

ESSB 5092 - 2021-2023 operating budget identifies $2,500,000 of the 2022 general fund state appropriation and $2,500,000 ($5M for the biennium) of the 2023 general fund state appropriation to commerce. The purpose of these funds is for commerce to administer grants to diaper banks in Washington state for the purchase of diapers, wipes, and other essential baby products, (for children three years and under) for distribution to families in need. The legislative proviso language included that commerce must give priority to providers serving or located in marginalized, low-income communities or communities of color, and providers that help support racial equity.

Commerce is holding a public comment period prior to the announcement of a request for qualifications for the diaper program.

- The public comment period will be held from August 18 to 25, 2021.
- This is a new program and we want to hear what stakeholders would like to see from it.

- Written comments can be submitted via United States mail or email and will be accepted until 11:59 p.m. on August 25, 2021. Comments for the Washington state diaper program should be sent to: CSBG@Commerce.WA.Gov. Subject: WA State Diaper Program Comments; OR Attn: Karen Dunn, Department of Commerce, Washington Diaper Program, P.O. Box 42525, Olympia, WA 98504-2525.
