

Drafts and Redrafts of Districts

A scribbled notation in the corner of a hand-drawn plan for the Thirty-Seventh District reads, "4/26/71, 37th, redrafted 4/27/71, @ 2:30am." Initials follow, which are possibly "R.G." for Democratic redistricting leader R.R. "Bob" Greive. Before the advent of computers, districts were drawn and redrawn by hand, and debate on the on the shifting boundaries often lasted into the wee hours of the morning.

Redistricters probably debated over this rendering of the Thirty-Seventh District, mentioned in the notation above.
