RCW 28A.235.310 Food waste reduction—Superintendent of public instruction—Development of educational resources. The office of the superintendent of public instruction shall identify or develop open educational resources for use by schools to integrate mathematics, science, social-emotional, environmental and sustainability, and social studies content standards to help support and prioritize food waste reduction in schools. [2025 c 314 s 8.]

Findings—Intent—2025 c 314: See note following RCW 70A.207.050.