

WAC 222-16-051 *Exception to Class IV-special. An application would not be classified as Class IV-special based on its potential impact to aquatic resources under any subsection of WAC 222-16-050(1) if the application is consistent with an agreement described in WAC 222-12-041(3) and the agreement addresses the risk to aquatic resources addressed in such subsection of WAC 222-16-050(1). The landowner must identify these subsections at the time of application. Forest practices applications may still be classified as Class IV-special based upon the potential for impact to other factors listed in any subsection of WAC 222-16-050(1).
