WAC 388-489-0005 Who is eligible for transitional food assistance? You are eligible for transitional food assistance (TFA) for up to five months if you meet the following eligibility criteria:

(1) Your family stops receiving cash assistance to include temporary assistance for needy families (TANF), tribal TANF, or state family assistance (SFA), or:

(2) Your family receives (TCA);

(3) Your family was receiving basic food at the time we determined you were no longer eligible for cash assistance described in subsection (1) of this section, or when you received TCA;

(4) After your family stops receiving cash assistance described in subsection (1) of this section, or receives TCA, no other member of your basic food assistance unit receives TANF, tribal TANF, or SFA;

(5) Your family did not move out of the state of Washington as described in WAC 388-468-0005;

(6) At the time your family's cash assistance ended, your family was not in sanction status. Sanction status means:

(a) We reduced your family's TANF grant payment because a family member is not cooperating with the division of child support (WAC 388-422-0010); or

(b) We decided that a member of your family was not eligible for TANF because the member:

(i) Failed to meet teen parent living arrangement (WAC 388-486-0005) or teen parent school attendance requirements (WAC 388-410-0010); or

(ii) Was convicted of unlawful practices (WAC 388-446-0005) or for receiving TANF in two or more states at the same time (WAC 388-446-0010); or

(c) We stopped your family's TANF grant payment, including tribal TANF, because of a grant reduction sanction penalty (WAC 388-310-1600).

(7) At the time your family's TANF grant ended, your basic food assistance unit did not become ineligible because:

(a) You were applying for recertification of your basic food benefits and refused to cooperate with the application process; or

(b) All members of your assistance unit are ineligible for basic food for the reasons stated in WAC 388-489-0025(3).

(8) There is no limit to the number of times your family can receive TFA.

WAC 388-489-0010 How is my transitional food assistance benefit calculated? (1) We base your transitional food assistance (TFA) benefit amount on the regular monthly benefit allotment issued to your basic food assistance unit for the last month your household received temporary assistance for needy families (TANF) or the month you qualified for transitional cash assistance (TCA). We will not count your last TANF grant payment when we calculate your TFA benefit amount. For example:

(a) If your basic food assistance unit's only income was TANF, the TFA benefit will be the amount your household would have received if you had no income.

(b) If your basic food benefit was calculated using TANF plus income from another source, we will count only the income from the other source when calculating the TFA amount.

(c) If a member of your assistance unit is in WorkFirst sanction when TANF closes for a reason other than WorkFirst sanction, the TFA household size will be reduced by the number of individuals in sanction when TANF closed.

(2) We will adjust your TFA benefits if:

(a) Someone who gets TFA with you leaves your assistance unit and is found eligible to receive basic food in another assistance unit. We will adjust your benefits by:

(i) Reducing your assistance unit size by the number of persons who left your assistance unit; and

(ii) Removing the income and expenses clearly belonging to the persons who left your assistance unit.

(b) A change to the maximum allotment for basic food under WAC 388-478-0060 results in an increase in benefits for basic food assistance units.

(c) You were overpaid basic food benefits and we need to adjust the amount we deduct from your monthly benefits to repay the overpayment as required in WAC 388-410-0033. This includes:

(i) Starting a new monthly deduction;

(ii) Changing the amount of the monthly deduction; and

(iii) Ending the monthly deduction when the amount you owe has been paid off.

WAC 388-489-0015 How long will my household receive transitional food assistance? (1) If your basic food assistance unit is eligible for transitional food assistance according to WAC 388-489-0005, you will receive transitional food assistance for up to five months beginning:

(a) The month after your household stopped getting temporary assistance for needy families; or

(b) The month after you receive transitional cash assistance.

(2) If you stopped receiving tribal TANF benefits, you are eligible for transitional benefits:

(a) With the next monthly issuance after we update your case to show you no longer have tribal TANF income, if the tribal TANF end date is the end of the current month or the end of a prior month; or

(b) On the first of the month following the tribal TANF end date, if the tribal TANF end date is the end of a future month.

(3) If necessary, we will extend or shorten your basic food assistance unit's current certification period to match the five-month transition period.

(4) You may choose to end your five-month transition period early by submitting an application for regular basic food under WAC 388-489-0022 or by asking us to terminate your benefits.

(5) We send you a notice before the end of your five-month transition period so you can reapply for regular basic food benefits and continue to receive benefits without interruption as described in WAC 388-434-0010.

(6) We may terminate your transitional food assistance early for the reasons stated in WAC 388-489-0025.

WAC 388-489-0020 Am I required to report changes in my household's circumstances while on transitional food assistance? (1) If you only receive transitional food assistance, you are not required to report any changes in your household circumstances.

(2) If you receive benefits from another cash program, you must meet the reporting requirements for the other program as required by WAC 388-418-0005. Except for changes listed under WAC 388-489-0025, the changes you report for the other program will not affect your household's eligibility for transitional food assistance.

(3) If your household experiences a change in circumstances during your five-month transition period, and you think that you may be eligible for more food assistance, you may submit an application for the regular Basic Food program under WAC 388-489-0022.
