

WAC 174-116-241 Parking permits—Special exceptions. All persons parking vehicles on campus will park in available space as established by the college parking regulations and will pay the established parking fee except as follows:

(1) Vehicles with government tax exempt licenses will be allowed to park without charge.

(2) Members of the press, television, radio and wire services, on official business, after obtaining a permit from the parking office, may park without charge.

(3) Taxis and commercial delivery vehicles may enter the campus without payment of the parking fee only for pick-up and delivery of passengers, supplies and equipment.

(4) Permanently and temporarily disabled persons may request a disability parking placard from the parking office. Vehicles parked in handicapped-accessible spaces must display a paid parking permit and a state of Washington or college-issued temporary disabled parking placard to be valid.
