1) Evaluations when the child is determined to have a disability, and is in need of early intervention services or special education and health care-related services that result in an individualized education program (IEP) or individualized family service plan (IFSP);

2) Health care-related services authorized in an IEP or IFSP limited to:
   - (a) Audiology;
   - (b) Counseling;
   - (c) School health services and school nursing services;
   - (d) Occupational therapy;
   - (e) Physical therapy;
   - (f) Psychological assessments and services; and
   - (g) Speech-language therapy.

3) Reevaluations, to determine whether a child continues to need early intervention services or special education and health care-related services.
