- WAC 388-106-0250 What is the roads to community living (RCL) demonstration project and who is eligible? (1) Roads to community living (RCL) is a demonstration project, funded by a "money follows the person" grant originally authorized under section 6071 of the Deficit Reduction Act of 2005 (P.L. 109-171) and extended through the Patient Affordable Care Act (P.L. 111-148). It is designed to test services and supports which help customers move from institutional settings into the community if they wish to.
- (2) To be eligible, the department must assess your needs in CARE per chapter 388-106 or 388-845 WAC and you must:
- (a) Have a continuous stay of at least sixty days in a qualified institutional setting (hospital, nursing home, residential habilitation center);
- (i) Any days you were solely receiving medicare-paid, short term rehabilitation services are excluded from the sixty days.
- (ii) If you are discharging from a state psychiatric hospital and meet the length of stay criteria, you must be under age twenty-two, or age sixty-five and older.
- (b) Have received at least one day of medicaid-paid inpatient services immediately prior to discharge from the institutional setting;
- (c) Intend to move to a home and community based setting (home, apartment, licensed residential setting); and
- (d) On the day of discharge, you must be functionally and financially eligible for, but are not required to receive, medicaid waiver or state plan services.
