

WAC 388-826-0205 What happens when a client, parent, or legal guardian requests a different provider? (1) A client, parent, or legal guardian requesting a change in provider must:

(a) Notify the DDA social worker and provider; and

(b) Determine if current services can be modified to meet the client's need.

(2) If services cannot be modified to meet the client's need, alternative residential options may be explored.

(a) The client may return home until a new placement is identified; or

(b) The client may remain in the current placement until a new provider is identified.

(3) The department may request a court review and a guardian ad litem to represent the best interest of the child.
