

WAC 388-832-0315 What are recreational opportunities? (1) Recreational opportunities are activities, such as summer camps, day trips, or typical activities available in your community.

(2) Recreational opportunities may include memberships in civic groups, clubs, crafting classes, or classes outside of K-12 school curriculum or sports activities.

(3) Recreational opportunities may be a reimbursable expense through a developmental disabilities administration (DDA) contract.

(4) The following limits apply to recreational opportunities:

(a) Recreational opportunities must occur in your community or an out-of-state bordering city under WAC 388-832-0333.

(b) DDA does not pay for recreational opportunities that may pose a risk to you or the community at large.

(c) DDA does not pay for supplies or materials related to recreational opportunities.
